Foreword

The dialogs in More Dialogs for Everyday Use are situation-based and present spoken English in a naturalness of style that will help students of English as a Foreign Language gain practice in hearing and understanding the stream of speech. There is no established order of difficulty in the arrangement of the dialogs within the text, and teachers are encouraged to use them as needed to supplement the more normal type of classroom learning activities.

Dialogue 1

Greetings

A (acquaintances)

Matt: Good morning

Maxine: Good morning. How are you today?

Matt: Just fine, thanks. How are you?

Maxine: Wonderful. Things couldn't be better.

B. (Good Friends)

Dotty: Hi. What's up?

Vivian: Nothing much. What's new with you?

Dotty: Not too much. I've been pretty busy.

Vivian: Me too. Seems like all I do is eat and sleep.

Dotty: Gotta go. Call me tonight.

Vivian: Okay. Check you later.

C. (Family)

Mother: Good morning.

Son: Morning. What's for breakfast?

Mother: The usual. Eggs, toast, and cereal. Coffee, if you want.

Son: I think I'll just have cereal for a change.

Mother: Help yourself. The cereal and sugar are on the table. The milk's in the refrigerator.

Joan: How much is this?
Clerk: You mean the large one or the small one?
Joan: The large one.
Clerk: They're on special this week. They've been reduced to five dollars.
Joan: Is this the only kind you have?
Clerk: No. We have some that are different in style but not in color. They're over there. Do you see the sign?
Joan: Oh, yes. I think I'll look at those over there before I decide.
Clerk: Very well. Just take your time.

Glossary

*On special = special low price

*Just take your time = Don't be in a hurry.

Dialogue 30

MAIL TIME

Barbara: The mail has arrived.
Norma: Did I get anything?
Barbara: I think so. Let me look. You got something from the bank and an advertisement from a health spa.
Norma: Give me the letter from the bank. It might be important.
Barbara: Here. Maybe you've overdrawn your account.
Norma: No danger of that. I don't have any money to overdraw. I hope it's an offer of that job I applied for.

Dialogue 32

GETTING SOMETHING FIXED

Lee: How long do you think it'll take to fix it?
Repairman: Hard to tell. Sometimes we can find the problem right away and sometimes it may take an hour or two.
Lee: Should I wait or come back later?
Repairman: Suit yourself, but it's probably better to come back later.
Lee: You will get fixed today, won't you?
Repairman: I don't see any problem. We should have it ready for you by three at the latest. But, better call before you come.
Lee: Okay. Thanks a lot.

FAMILY PLANS

Wife: The gas company phoned this afternoon.
Husband: About the gas stove that we ordered?
Wife: Yes, and also about the gas furnace you asked about.
Husband: What did they say?
Wife: They're going to send someone out to talk with us about the furnace.
Husband: Good. I think we're doing the right thing. The old furnace just isn't very efficient anymore.
Wife: I agree. We should be able to afford a new furnace now that you got raise in salary.
Husband: Exactly my thoughts.

A SHORT DISCUSSION

Rosalie: Don't forget, Jim and Adrian are coming over tonight.
Tracy: I thought they were coming next week.
Rosalie: No. Tonight's the night. I told you at least a half a dozen times!
Tracy: Well, I forgot.
Rosalie: You forgot all too easily if you ask me.
Tracy: Anyway, I've made other plans.
Rosalie: Like what?
Tracy: I told Frank I'd help him work on his car.
