Introduction

- Some do jobs for need, some for fun and some in lack of any other option. In this curious world one has lots of things to explore and some applies for the job which may get weird, unusual or dirty. Want to know how, then read further about some of the world's most unconventional jobs.

Professional Pusher

- Japan is indeed a hardworking nation. It makes sure that all its people reach work on time and that's why Japan has employed people to push others into trains so that nobody's late for work.

Rental Boyfriend

- In Tokyo, if you have the money, finding a boyfriend is as easy as it gets. I don't really know what all the boyfriend will do, but it sure sounds fun. I'll be shifting to Tokyo the day the Japanese come up with the concept of 'Rental Girlfriends' .

Professional Sleeper

- My first reaction when I came across this job was... Wow! You actually get paid to... Sleep! Professional Sleepers doze off while scientists conduct research on sleep disorders. This has to be undoubtedly the most comfortable job on the planet.

Vomit Cleaner

- Some roller coasters dip, rise and turn at such crazy angles that your breakfast is bound to come out the wrong way. Amusement park owners knew this fact and thus this job came into being.

Deodorant Tester

- You have a habit of poking your nose into other people's business. Well, these people poke their noses into other people's armpits to test the odour-fighting powers of deodorants. Now that's what you call a stinking job.

Water Slide Tester

- All play and no work makes Jack a dull boy. Not in this case, because Jack's work involves a lot of playing in water. Water Slide Testers have to check all aspects of safety and make sure these rides are absolutely safe. There's always medical insurance for those who break a bone or two.

Chicken Sexer

- Sure, there are chics involved, but still there's nothing sexy about this job. A chicken sexer's job is to identify the gender of a baby chicken. That's about it.

Car Plate Blocker

- In a bid to reduce congestion on the roads, Iran has employed a strange policy where cars with number plates ending in odd and even numbers are allowed on roads on alternate days only. Iranians hire men to walk behind their cars so that the cameras don't capture their number plates . And I thought India was the only land of jugaad.

Pet Food Taster

- Whoever came up with this job must be a true-blue animal lover or someone who likes to chew weird-tasting food. Do animals and humans have similar taste buds?

Professional Mourner

- You'll need these mourners if nobody gave a damn about you when you were alive. It's sad that you won't be able to see them mourn for you because you'd be in the coffin.

Furniture Tester

- As long as the furniture's not made of cactus, this job's pretty cool. You have to sit, wriggle and sleep on the furniture to asses its comfort. This job is so cool that it's weird.

Crime Scene Cleaner

- Specialized training, knowledge of deep cleaning equipment, attention to detail and above all valiant guts are mark up of Crime Scene Cleaner. A crime scene cleaner clears up the mess after the dirty offenses took place which may include cleaning of damage to walls, doors, stains of blood, bones or body parts. It is one of the dirtiest jobs in the world which may even lead to emotional disorders but someone has to do it after all.

Fortune Cookies Writer

- Many of you might have tried out virtual fortune cookies at Facebook, but these are actual yummy cookies baked with a fortune note inside it. Writing these fortunes for fortune cookie companies is actually a great way to earn. All one need is smart and creative imagination which can find fortune in small walks of life.
- If you want to be a Fortune Cookie Writer than your fortune has already begun I guess!!!!

Pet Psychic

- Pet psychics are animal communicators who by their telepathy techniques try to learn animal's unsaid emotions. This job is preferably for animal lovers who find comfort in spending time with them. It does not actually need only formal training; all it need is care, love and understanding of body language.

Conclusion

- I think unusual jobs are a plenty in today's time and age and its always interesting to explore some of the fun and unusual jobs out there, especially if you're tired of your same old 9 to 5 job.
- An unusual job can be used to take a break from your existing career, to explore your time doing other things or simply because you feel like doing something different for a change.
